I Crisis Response and Policy Centre - CRPC

CRPC is a specialized nongovernmental organisation with an expertise in protection, inclusion and integration of forcibly displaced persons coming from more than 50 countries and is a UNHCR partner since 2016.

Working with international and national organisations and networks, CRPC can help you connect with different service providers in the country and is a front runner in combating xenophobia, homophobia and other forms of discriminatory behaviour.

CRPC is strongly committed caring resource actor, that respects fully and supports effectively the right to seek protection in a country and full-fledged applicability of the human rights in the country of asylum.

Special focus is placed on forcibly displaced persons, LGBTQIA+ community and other individuals with specific needs in mixed movements as well as host population members and their interaction with refugee community. If you are an LGBTQIA+ asylum seeker or a refugee and you wish to speak to somebody or need professional help in the language you understand, please, feel free to reach out to us. CRPC is committed to providing highest standards of professional and fully CONFIDENTIAL services. WE ARE PROUD of our years of experience and most of all that we have been recognized as a safe space and reliable organisation among the LGBTQIA+ community.
